To
The President, Mun! Comm.rs
Cm Station, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to recommend that a grant of Rs 100 for the purchase of furniture may be made from Municipal funds, for the Hindustani School known as the "Madrassai Hafizia", situated in the Cantonment. The school is now held in a good building. It is attended by about 60 children.

A similar grant was made to the other Municipal Hindustani School, the Madrassai Humayun situated in the Arab lines, see letter No: 573, dated 29th September 1891. The Madrassai Hafizia is equally deserving. All that is wanted to make it an efficient & comfortable school is a supply of furniture, including benches, desks, a chair and table for the master, blackboards, a box in which to keep books, a clock and a few maps and books for the master. The cost of these articles will amount to about Rs. 100.
